Corresponding author: (if more than one author)

1. Copyright Assignment

The author hereby assigns to University of Wrocław the copyright in the above article (for U.S. government employees: to the extent transferable), throughout the world, in any form, in any language, for the full term of copyright, effective upon acceptance for publication.

2. Author's Warranties

The author warrants that the article is original, written by stated author/s, has not been published before, contains no unlawful statements, does not infringe the rights of others, and that any necessary written permissions to quote from other sources have been obtained by the author/s.

3. Rights of Authors

Authors retain the following rights:

- all proprietary rights relating to the article, other than copyright, such as patent rights,
- the right to use the substance of the article in future own works, including lectures and books,
- the right to reproduce this article for own purposes, provided the copies are not offered for sale.

An author may self-archive an author-created version of his/her article on his/her own website and or in his/her institutional repository. He/she may also deposit this version on his/her funder's or funder's designated repository at the funder's request or as a result of a legal obligation, provided it is not made publicly available until 12 months after official publication. Furthermore, the author may only post his/her version provided acknowledgement is given to the original source of publication and a link is inserted to the published article on Springer's website. The link must be accompanied by the following text: "The original publication is available at www.springerlink.com". He/she may not use the publisher's PDF version, which is posted on www.springerlink.com, for the purpose of self-archiving or deposit.

Any other use of the article requires permission from the publisher.

4. Co-Authorship

If the article was prepared jointly with other authors, the signatory of this form warrants that he/she has been authorized by all co-authors to sign this agreement on their behalf, and agrees to inform his/her co-authors of the terms of this agreement.
